

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, January 23. 1707.

London, January 23.

Yesterday in the Evening, arriv'd from Holland the Mail of Friday last.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 28.
Rome, January 8.

Several Congregations of State have been held, to consider of the Demands made by the Imperialists, and it has been resolv'd to pay them nothing; whereupon a Courier has been dispatch'd to the Court of Vienna, and the Abbot Riviere is to go to Prince Eugene with the Character of Apostolical Delegate.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 28.

Milan, Jan. 13. Prince Eugene having regulated with the Council of State the Contributions that this Dutchy is to furnish, at 20600 Livres of our Money a Day, set out Yesterday for Turin attended by several General Officers. The Preparations for the Siege of our Castle are continued: Besides the Artillery that is arriv'd, more is expected from Turin; whence 'tis advis'd that the Duke of Savoy makes great Preparations likewise for some Siege. The German Troops having ruin'd several Mills in the Cremonese, and turn'd off some of the Water that serves Cremona, that City begins to suffer very much. The Marquis de Langallerie, General of Horse in the Service of the Emperour, has with a Party of Horse surpriz'd Borgoforte. A Treaty is talk'd of between the Count de Medavi and the Imperialists, pursuant to which that General is to return to France with the Troops he commands, the Venetians are to guard Mantua till Peace is made, and the Duke of Mantua is to retire to Ravenna; but this report seems to be founded on Conjecture. The Marquis de Bedmar, Viceroy of Sicily, has sent to Spain to desire Succours.

They write from Genoa, that the 6 Ships which sail'd from thence with the Earl of Peterborough, were met in the Height of Barcelona, in the Port of which Place were arriv'd 5 Men of War and 9 English Ships laden with Merchandize.

Roveredo, Jan. 16. We have Advice that the French are laying up great Stores of Ammunition and Provisions in Dauphine, and that they are compleating their Regiments for the ensuing Campaign. On the other side, the Duke of Savoy neglects nothing that may enable him to act with Vigour; and they write from Turin, that by the Spring he will have an Army of 20000 Men of his own Troops. Preparations are made at Casal Maggiore for attacking Sabionetta, and the Imperialists appear to have a Design to lay a Bridge over the Po near that Place.

Letters from Verona of the 15th, say the Duke of Mantua is expected there, and that some Persons of his Court are already arriv'd there, with a Detachment of 800 French Horse and 300 Grenadiers, to guard a Sum of Money that is to be sent from Verona to Mantua. 'Tis reported 3000 Imperialists are arriv'd in the Veronese, about Isola della Scala: If this News be true, the Communication between Verona and Mantua will be soon interrupted.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 28.

Toulon, Jan. 13. Great Diligence is us'd in fitting out the Men of War here, but for want of Seamen they cannot put to Sea till April next. Some Transport-ships laden with Ammunition, are sent to the Coast of Roussillon under the Convoy of 2 Men of War, for supplying the Magazines the King has caus'd to be made there.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 28.

Paris, Jan. 24. The Marshal de Villars is daily in Conference with the King. His Majesty nominated some new General Officers on Saturday last, but the List of them is not yet made publick. The Dutchess of Burgundy and the Duke of Britany continue well: The Dauphin is indispos'd. The Duke de Noailles has taken Leave of the King, and this Week sets out for Roussillon. The Report continues, that the Duke of Bavaria is to march to Alsace with his own and the Spanish Troops. They write from Perpignan, that all the regular Troops and Militia of Roussillon and Provinces adjacent, are drawn together, and only wait the Arrival of the Duke de Noailles to enter upon Action. Yesterday the King nominated the Duke of Orleans Generalissimo of his Army design'd to serve in Piemont, and the Marshal de Thesse is to command under him. The Parliament of Paris having caus'd Process to be made out against Prince Emanuel of Lorrain Brother of the Duke d'Elbœuf, the Marquis de Langallerie Lieutenant General, and the Marquis de Bonneval Major General, who went over to the Enemy and entred into their Service some Time ago, have condemn'd them to be beheaded, with Confiscation of their Estates which are considerable. A Bull for a general Jubile for imploring Peace from Heaven, being brought to Court, will in a few Days be publish'd.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Maastricht, Jan. 24. The Dutchess of Tyrconnel, who has been some time at Aix la Chapelle, is on her Departure from thence for Brussels.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Thursday Jan. 16. Draught of the Act ratifying and approving the Treaty of Union of the two Kingdoms of Scotland and England, read a 2d Time.

Then the Act for Security of the Protestant Religion and Presbyterian Church Government, which is insert in and ratified by the above Act, was touch'd with the Royal Scepter by her Majesty's high Commissioner in the usual Manner.

Representation and Petition of the Commission of the general Assembly of the Church of Scotland, craving that there be no Stipulation or Consent for the Establishment of the Hierarchy and Ceremonies of the Church of England, by the Act ratifying and approving the Treaty of Union, given in and read.

And after reasoning upon the Act and Representation the Vote was staid approve the Act or not.

And before Voting it was agreed, that the Votes be marked. And the Chancellor was allowed to be marked as an Approver.

Likeas

Likeas the Duke of Douglass gave in a Protestation for his Privilege of the first Vote in Parliament, and took Instruments thereon. And the Duke of Hamilton gave in a Protestation on the contrary, and took Instruments thereon.

Then the Vote was put, approve the Act ratifying and approving the Treaty of Union of the two Kingdoms of Scotland and England yea or not, and it carried approve by 41 Votes, yea 110, no 69.

And the Act was thereafter touch'd with the Royal Scepter by her Majesty's high Commissioners in the usual Manner.

The Committee appointed to meet to Morrow at 9 a Clock, and adjourn'd till Monday next.

Weymouth, Jan. 20. A Transport is arriv'd from St. Malo, with 350 exchange'd Prisoners: What is most material by them is, That the French have lately sent out from Rochford and other Ports 20 Men of War, and are fitting out 10 more, on some Design that is kept secret. That they carry on a great Trade to the South-Sea, from whence they receive great Riches; and that the Vessel they came in was detain'd 24 Days, till Ships bound for the South-Sea were sail'd.

Harwich, Jan. 21. On Sunday sail'd the Dispatch and Marlborough Pacquet Boats with 2 Mails for Holland, and 100 Recruits. Yesterday all the Men of War and Yachts, with the Merchant Ships under their Convoy, sail'd from hence for Holland. The Scarborough with 3 other Men of War, are arriv'd in Hofsely-Bay.
